Cambridge will carry out a pre-appeal review for malpractice stage one appeal requests. The Pre-Appeal Process for malpractice cases involves the written evidence relating to the case to be reviewed by senior staff from Cambridge English. The purpose of the initial consideration is to decide whether any further actions relating to the appeal should be authorised (e.g. gathering of additional evidence). Should this review result in a decision to uphold the appeal you will be notified.

For more information on the process, please visit: Enquiries and Appeals \(cambridgeenglish.org\)

Outcomes for appeals:

- Stage 1 appeals will be released within 10 working days of receipt.
- Stage 2 appeals will be released within 14 working days of receipt.
